MRS. CAMPBELL

Today James Campbell is a Jonesome man. On Friday morning of last week his good wife quietly and without even a tremor of pain left him for the other world. Mrs. Campbell was 82, but on the previous day she was about the house as usual, spent a good night, but in the morning said, "Jim, please give me a drink of water. I am short of breath, but guess it will be all right.
No, I have no pain." But her breath became shorter and faint-er and before a doctor arrived the heart ceased its work.

Mrs. Campbell had never had a real sick day in her life said her husband. "She never knew what suffering from illness was,
and there is comfort in knowing that her leaving was without pain or anguish of any kind."

Funeral services were held at the residence, with Reverend Spuller speaking the words of religious comfort. The body was taken to Eastlawn for cremation, which was according to the wish of the deceased woman.

Former Miss Grace Summers Passes Away

From E. H. Foster of Berkeley comes word of the death in Seattle of Mrs. G. A. Sherman, formerly Miss Grace Summers of this county. "She was the last of the original Summers family.
The only one still bearing the name of the family is Roscoe, son of John Summers, who is living with his mother and stepmother,
Mr. and Mrs. Berry at Posey, Kern county.

Mrs. Sherman was the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Summers and was born at the home northwest of Dixon February 9, 1885. She attended school in Dixon and Mills seminary in Oakland where she will be remembered as a student of worth and unusual uprightness. In the world war she was active in forwarding humanitarian projects and was a leader in promoting things worthwhile.

She became the wife of G. A.
Sherman of Oakland in 1913 and after the war in which her husband served two years they went to Seattle and successfully engaged in merchandising. An enjoyable part of her married life was a trip around the world.
Mr. Summers was killed in an automobile accident in 1931, after which she spent her widowhood in a beautiful home on Mercer island where her chief purpose was the proper bringing up of her son. She was liberal in her dispensing of kindly virtues and her home was the gathering place of many friends who will always remember her as the soul of honor, integrity and moral worth."

Mr. and Mrs. L. Ferguson recently received word from the Hawaiian Islands of the birth of an 8-pound boy to Mr. and Mrs.
John Hoxie. Mrs. Hoxie was formerly Miss Catherine Agee.

Dixon friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Ray Duncan of Richmond received the happy announcement this week of the birth to them on Monday of a ten-pound, three ounce girl, Velma Diana. Mrs.
Duncan was formerly Miss Florence Ashby.

A second boy was born to Mr.
and Mrs. William Grigsby at Vallejo first of the week.

Ernest R. Lingren, 42, Dixon, Calif., and Doris S. Hallam, 41, Portland, Ore.

Ernest Lingren of this place, and Mrs. Dora Hanlon were married in Reno Wednesday of last week and are making their home on the Lingren farm, formerly the C. Clausen ranch east of Dixon.

Dr. Cheney, well-known San Francisco physician, passed away this week. The Doctor was related to J. N. Garnett of this place through marriage, his sister, Miss Claire becoming Dr.
Cheney's wife.

Edward Weigele, of Sacramento and Miss Florence Weidam, formerly of Texas but now living in the capital city, were married in Reno this week.

Dear Zandra;

Guess what I found! Went through two films last night and came up with only one familiar name. Thought you might like to have this:

Buried at Sandusky Cemetary, 3 miles East of Westville, Vermilion County, Illinois -

Joseph Ashby died Sept. 26, 1845 aged 70 yrs, 6 mo, 23 days

Nancy Ashby died Oct. 17, 1861 aged 81 yrs, 4 mo, 15 days

Mormon film #924006, 10th item on film, cemeteries, wills and marriages from several Illinois counties. Includes marriages and cemetery records from Vermilion County. Only a few cemeteries. Found no Cloes or other related names but above.

Hope that helps.

Regards-

Jinda

John and Martha had three sons, John T., William and Hugh Blakeney, according to the census lists we have found. John was born in Ireland and came to America before he was 20 years old. He was in Revolution for seven years. He came from Penn. where two of his sons were born and maybe the third son, to Bourbon Co., Ky.

Genesis 1:28-"And God blessed them and said unto them, Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it".

Genesis 3:21-"Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord make skins, and clothed them."

II. Thessalonians 3:10-"For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat".

Our forefathers followed the teachings of the above scriptures, raising families, clothing their nakedness, and showing the children how to work. Today some would rebel and murder their offspring by abortion, let their children wear no more than a fig leaf, and scream at our government to feed them because they are too lazy to work. We will not be blessed in so doing, but the wrath of God will be manifest.

John T. and Sarah were married in Paris, Ky. and lived there until they came to Illinois with a group of friends and relatives. John T. and Sarah are buried in Dukes C.

They had fourteen children. Two died as infants. Thomas lived for an indefinite period. The others were William, Hezekiah, John, Nancy, Sarah, Polly, Verlinda, Hugh, James, and Angeline Blakeney, with Martha the first born. We have as yet no knowledge who Sarah's parents were. She was born in Virginia, what part we do not know.

III. 8. Sarah Jane Blakeney

"Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the Kingdom of God.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." - Galatians 5:19-23.

Sarah Jane was the eighth child of John T. and Sarah (Oliver) Blakeney born in Bourbon Co., Ky.

b. 11/9/1826 b. 9/1817
d. 2/6/1906 d. 3/1/1889

James A. Ashby was the son of Joseph Ashby (died 9/16/1845 age 70 years 6 mo. 23 days) and Nancy Cloe Ashby (died 12/17/1861 age 81 years 4 mo. 15 days) from Stafford Co. Virginia, where they were married. They came to Vermillion Co., Ill., in 1829. Sarah Jane and James and his parents are buried in Sandusky cemetery, Westville, Ill. Sarah and James had nine children, Milton, Columbus, Lida, Martha, Avilda, Pauline, Pleasant, Emma and Medora Ashby.

IV 3. Lida Ann Ashby m. 12/16/1875 Henry W. Milner
b. 11/17/1853 b. 6/15/1856
d. 5/4/1915 d. 12/18/1925

Lida and Henry began their married life in Vermillion Co. They moved near Prairie Green Twsp. in Irquois Co. and went to Prairie Green church of Christ. They moved to a farm near Remington, Ind., later moving into town for their later years. I can remember visiting them on the farm and in their new house in Remington. They had nine children, James, Louie Mae, Joseph, Cora, Jennie, Harry, Fred, Dell and Henry (Doc). Milner -- maybe not in this order. Henry W. was called Wes.

DUKES CEMETERY

This is a private cemetery situated along a branch that flows along the railroad tracts going north east of Westville, Ill. Wm. Dukes deeded the land to cemetery. Vandals have almost destroyed all the head stones or a tornado? We know more are buried there than head stones account. The oldest stone was 1840 but the name was gone. Here is where Iva and Lawrence Clute, Lloyd Field and the writer found our great-great-grandfather and grandmother's graves, John and Sarah Blakeney. His brother William is buried there but no stone. Some stones there in 1966 gone in 1971.

ONE CENT REWARD

Perrysville, Indiana March 26th 1844

Ran away from the subscriber on the night of the 18th March 1844; a Boy named bound to me by the overseers of the Poor to learn the Trade of a Tin Plate Manufacturer. Said boy, is now about 18 years and 6 months old; 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, had on when he went away, a new invisible green Broad Cloth frock coat; fine blue cassinett pantaloons, new vest & boots & a black oil cloth cap. Said boy has a down cast look when spoken to, is sulky in his disposition, fond of keeping the company of the gambler STROPE, I do hereby, forwarn all persons from trusting him on any account, as I will pay no debts of his contracting; I also forewarn all persons from harboring or giving the said boy employment as I am determined to put the Law in force against every person so doing. The above reward will be paid to any person turning said apprentice to me, but I will not pay any charges or give them any thanks for so doing.

JAMES H. BENEFIELD

I. ABDILL

The above article and the following two pages of abstracts on items from old papers were done so by Mrs. Donna Gash, Assistant Editor. COFFEYVILLE WELCOMES
YOU

On October 5, 1892, the five-member Dalton Gang rode into Coffeyville planning to rob the two banks. George Cubine and Charles Brown, two of Coffeyville's citizens killed while defending their town against the notorious gang, are buried here in Elmwood Cemetery.

Other defenders killed were City Marshal Charles Connelly, buried in Independence, KS, and Lucius Baldwin, buried in Burlington, KS. Three other citizens were wounded.

The family of Dick Broadwell, the remaining gang member, took his body back to Hutchinson, KS.

ELMWOOD CEMETERY GRAVE LOCATIONS

Just north of here lie Bob Dalton, Grat Dalton, and Bill Power, killed by Coffeyville citizens defending their two banks on October 5, 1892. The pipe near the grave, originally the hitching rail to which their horses were tied in Death Alley, was their only marker until Emmett Dalton was pardoned - after serving fifteen years in the Kansas penitentiary. He installed the headstone you see today.

Also, 100 yards straight west is the grave of Frank Dalton, a brother, killed in 1837 in the line of duty as a U.S. Deputy Marshal.

A photograph of a stone pillar marking the entrance to Elmwood Cemetery. The pillar is made of stacked stones and has a flat, rectangular top. The text "ELMWOOD CEMETERY" is carved into the stone. The pillar is set in a snowy landscape with evergreen trees in the background and a snow-covered path leading into the distance.
